

COMMUNITY FACILITIES

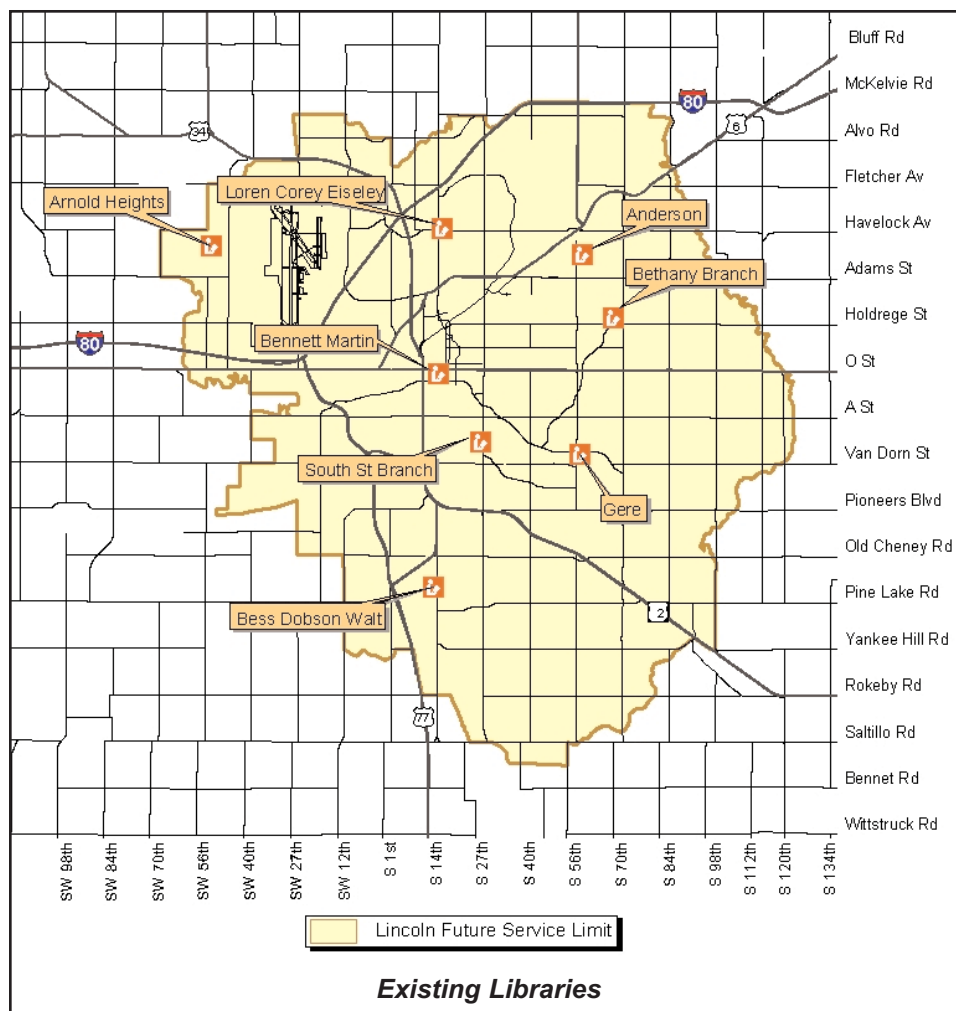

The availability and service levels of community facilities affects the quality of life in the City and County. The community facilities discussed in this section are: libraries, public safety, medical health care, and other public buildings and facilities.

LIBRARIES

The Lincoln City Libraries currently operates the following nine facilities: the Bennett Martin Main Branch Public Library in the Downtown, four major community branch libraries (Victor E. Anderson, Charles H. Gere, Loren Corey Eiseley and Bess Dodson Walt), two neighborhood libraries (Bethany and South Street), one mini-library (Arnold Heights), and the Book Mobile. The Lincoln City Libraries have a branch library in each quadrant of its operational service area.

Through contractual arrangement, residents living outside Lincoln, but within Lancaster County, have access to all services of Lincoln City Libraries.

In addition to Lincoln City Libraries, there are private and other publicly supported libraries in the community. These libraries are associated with colleges and universities in Lincoln. Access to these libraries is determined by each institution's governing body.

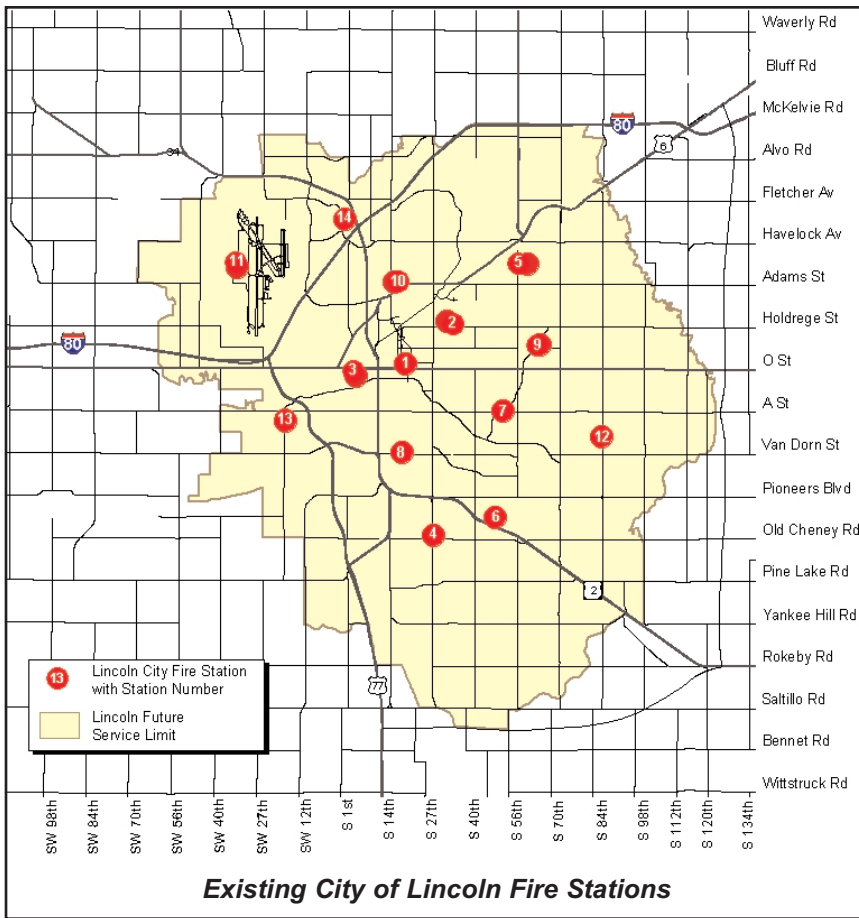

PUBLIC SAFETY

FIRE PROTECTION

Lincoln Fire Department

The Lincoln Fire Department currently operates from 14 stations located throughout the City. These stations are distributed to offer the community an average three and a half minute response time. Mutual Aid requests for Lincoln Fire Department service are common for incidents outside Lincoln.

The Lincoln Fire Department's equipment system is designed for use with a public water supply capable of generating 1,500 gallons of water per minute at a residual pressure of 50 pounds per square inch.

The Lincoln Fire Department provides emergency ambulance transport services in the City of Lincoln. Interfacility hospital-to-hospital non-emergency services are provided by the private sector.

Rural Fire Districts

There are 17 rural fire districts serving Lancaster County. All rural fire district personnel are volunteers. Rural fire districts can provide fire protection, rescue, and emergency ambulance transport. Fire departments are distributed throughout most of the towns and villages, while some are located in the unincorporated areas of the county. Mutual aid requests between fire districts are common for incidents outside Lincoln. Each rural fire district has unique challenges, including response times and water availability.

LAW ENFORCEMENT

Lincoln Police Department

Law enforcement in the City of Lincoln is primarily the responsibility of the Lincoln Police Department. The Department responds to nearly 150,000 service requests annually. It uses five team districts (Northwest, Northeast, Southeast, Southwest, and Central) to deliver law enforcement services throughout the city. Several satellite sites and one substation (located at 27th and Holdrege Streets) are utilized by the Department. Its primary services facility is the Justice and Law Enforcement Center in Downtown Lincoln.

Lancaster County Sheriff's Office

The County Sheriff's Office provides services throughout Lancaster County, including support to the City of Lincoln. The Sheriff's Office uses satellite sites throughout Lancaster County. It shares the Justice and Law Enforcement Center with the Lincoln Police Department.

Law enforcement in the incorporated communities of Lancaster County (other than Lincoln) is provided under inter-local agreements with the Lancaster County Sheriff's Office.

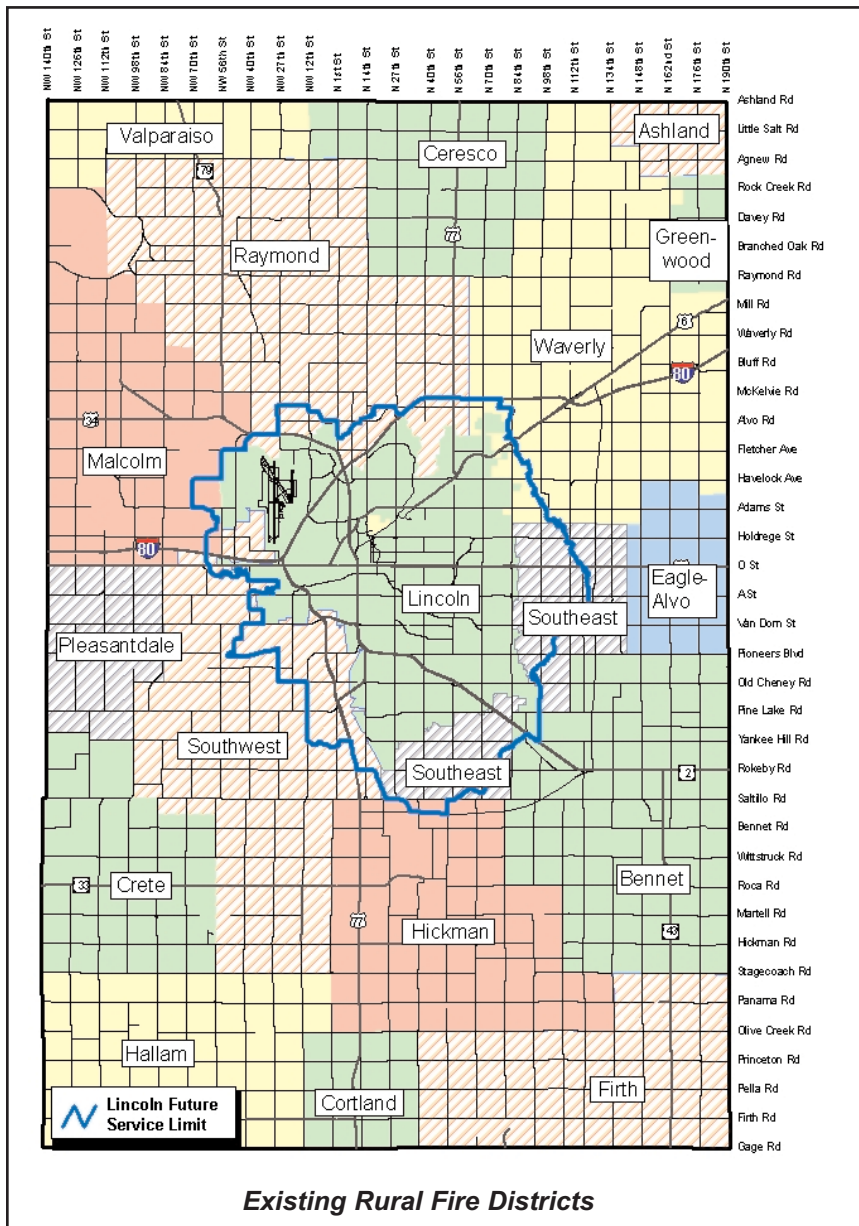

MEDICAL HEALTH CARE

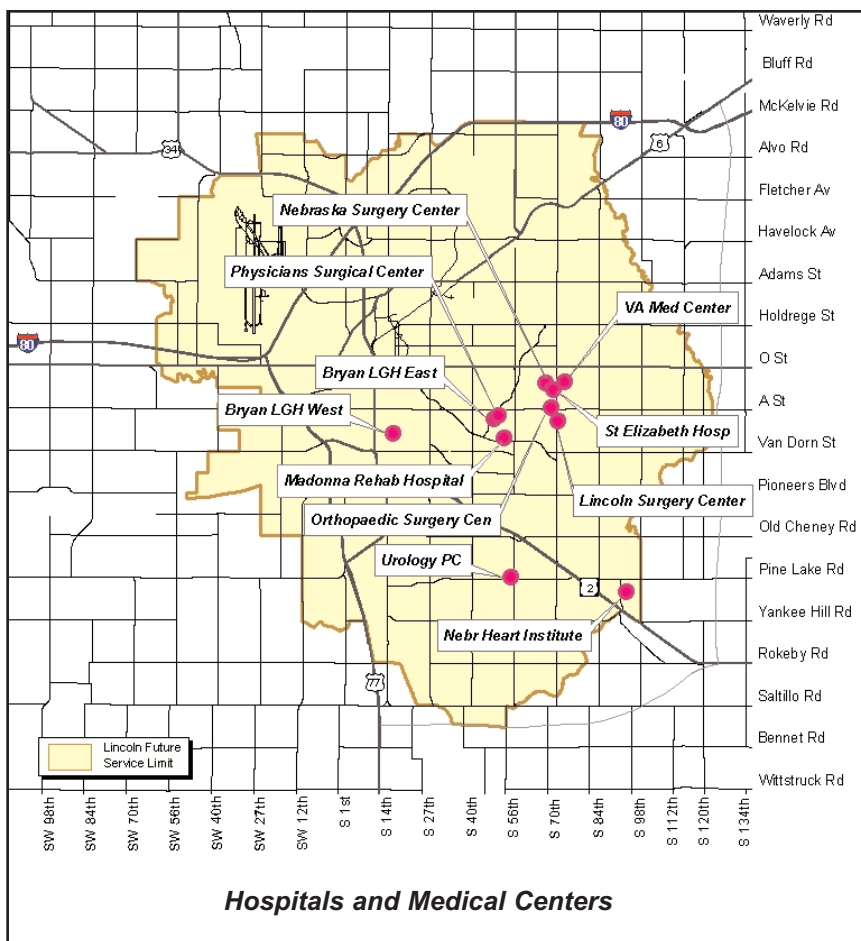

Medical Centers and Hospitals

Lincoln and Lancaster County are served by 3 hospitals, 1 rehabilitation hospital and a Veterans Administration Medical Center. Ambulance services are provided through a combination of private and public providers. There are also a number of other specialized health care facilities, such as nursing homes, treatment centers, specialty clinics, and retirement centers. Medical health care facilities in Lincoln provide more than 900 hospital beds to area residents.

BryanLGH Medical Center is a 583-bed, not-for-profit locally owned healthcare organization with two acute-care facilities (BryanLGH West and BryanLGH East) and several outpatient clinics located throughout the city.
